Viewing backup records

You can check the number of your backup records in SaaS Backup for Salesforce.

The first full backup provides the total number of backup records at the organization level. After this first backup, you can view the total number of created, updated, and deleted records from the Backup summary.

Steps

1. From the dashboard, click the number of protected instances (production or sandbox).
2. Click view under Backup Summary.

3. View the number of created and deleted records and the record count of all record changes in the table.

OBJECT NAME	CREATED	DELETED	RECORD COUNT	TYPE
1234567890zwexhubnjkmle w7quxuwi xshbggg	0	0	0	Custom
Account	76	0	76	Standard
Account Brand	0	0	0	Standard
Account Contact Relationship	20	0	20	Standard

- Object name - Includes all objects in the organization.
- Created - All created and updated records.
- Deleted - All deleted records.
- Record count - The total number of backup changes for an object.
